METHODISM.

Quadrennial Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church—The Lay Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 14.—The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church assembled at the usual hour, being the 12th day. The chair was occupied by Bishop Janes.

The following Special Committee on Memorials from Holsten Conference of the M. E. Church South was announced: Hitchcock, Castle, J. M. Reid, Shuwate, G. W. Clarke, Kiger and Walden.

Dr. Thayer, of Boston, submitted a resolution in favor of locating a Missionary Secretary in that city.

Dr. Butler, of the New England Conference, offered a resolution in favor of admitting delegates from Foreign Missions to seats in the General Conference.

Gilbert Haven, of Boston, submitted a preamble and resolution that in view of the solemn crisis through which the country is now passing, special prayer for the United States Senate be made on Saturday from 8 to 9 o'clock A. M. Referred to the Committee on the state of the country.

CHICAGO, May 14.—The resolutions adopted at the Lay Convention this afternoon, declare that the present Convention of Methodists has the same right to change the plans of the Church for its improvement, and to adapt it to circumstances, that Wesley and the fathers had to create it, and that as educational, publishing, missionary and other charitable agencies depend largely upon the laity for support, and as the laity are already charged with weighty responsibilities concerning them, we regard it as eminently reasonable and desirable that they should be associated with the ministry in the inception, establishment and modification of the various institutions of the church.

Additional Arrests for Complicity in the McGee Assassination—The Fisheries.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTREAL, May 4.—A man named Duggan, a saloon keeper, and two accomplices, were arrested this morning, charged with being implicated in the plot for the assassination of McGee. The prisoners were examined before Judge Coursal, with doors closed. A witness testsfied to being present in Duggan's house in December last, when the conspiracy was hatched. Twelve American and twelve Canadian Fenians were also present. One man, called Smith, was selected to do a certain job; witness could not say what job, but heard one of the men say, "My God, if McGee only knew what he has in store for him, wouldn't he leave the country?" Witness also heard another man say, "Smith you did that job of burning the Orange Lodge first rate." Witness has identified Whalen as the man he heard called Smith. The prisoners leave for Ottawa to-morrow, in charge of officers.

THE NATIONAL SUSPENSE.

Illness of Senators—Confidence on Both Sides—The Boating Senators—Exciting Revelations—The Purchase Substantiated—A Further Adjournment Talked of—A Story About Grant.

WASHINGTON, May 14, 1368.

Considerable anxiety has been felt at the sickness of Senators, and the doubts surrounding the verdict in the impeachment case have increased by the uncertainty of all the members of the Court being able to appear in the Senate Chamber on Saturday. Senator Howard is much better this morning, and Senator Conkling, who has been seriously ill since the adjournment of the Court, is also much better. Senator Grimes' case, who was attacked with paralysis yesterday, is not serious, and the prospect now is that a full vote can be had at twelve o'clock on Saturday. The delay is believed to have strengthened the impeachment cause. Letters, telegrams and copies of resolutions adopted by meetings of the constituents, have been pouring in upon Senators who are supposed to be wavering, and to Republican members of the House. Thad Stevens is confident that his eleventh article at least cannot be defeated. The President and his friends, who have been confident of acquittal, are known to have been far less sanguine last night.

There is the same earnest feeling this afternoon in regard to impeachment which has existed for the past week. The excitement is as great as at any time, although not so open and violent. The news last evening that Senator Grimes had been stricken with paralysis created profound sensation, and caused a great deal of comment. Impeachment men are confident this afternoon that the eleventh article is sure to go through by thirty-eight votes. The friends of the President are not as certain this morning of his acquittal as they were yesterday and the day previous.

A gentleman who had an interview with the President at quite a late hour last night says his conversation indicated that he was by no means sure that the Senate would acquit him on all the articles.

Senator Henderson having given the Missouri delegation to understand that he would resign if he could not support the eleventh article, and not up to the present time tendered his resignation, the delegation believe that it is his intention to support the article. This fact has served to strengthen the cause of impeachment, while depressing the friends of the President.

The Board of Managers on the part of the House came into such information this morning as to justify them in calling an extra session of the Committee. This information is of a very startling character, and shows, it is said, what has instigated certain Republican Senators to vote for the acquittal of the President. Witnesses have been summoned to appear immediately before the Committee, and it is claimed that evidence will be elicited which will prove that two Senators have obtained large sums of money for going against the conviction of the President, and that they deliberately bartered away their votes. If these statements are supported, as it is claimed, there will be an exciting time as anticipated.

A fair review of the field, shows that the President will be convicted on the eleventh article, as thirty-eight Senators will vote guilty on it. On the second article the vote will reach thirty-five, and on the others about twenty-seven in favor.

Mr. Howard and Mr. Grimes are both much better to-day.

It is generally understood that Messrs. Howard, Grimes and Conkling are to be very sick on Saturday, and the vote will be postponed until Monday, the 25th inst. Senator Fowler's position is most inexplicable, and creates great discussion. He was the chief of impeachers before the last effort, and up to within a few days of the resolution declaring the removal of Stanton and the appointment of General Thomas unconstitutional and illegal, but he did not vote for that, and has never since voted save with the Democrats. He thus proves that he has judged the case in advance. Senator Henderson says he will vote for the eleventh and second articles. Mr. Trumbull and Mr. Frelinghuysen will also vote for them, it is said.

The excitement has abated somewhat. Mr. Johnson continues in excellent spirits. He is sure of acquittal, and says the thing has been fixed and cannot be altered by any outside influence.

Senator Fowler has defined his position to-day, and will go for acquittal on every article.

NEW YORK, May, 14.—There is not so strong a belief in the acquittal of the President to-day, and betting is being resorted to again. Col. Moss writes from Washington, that General Grant is working hard with his friends to secure conviction. He says Johnson's acquittal will result in bloodshed. His opinions ought to influence the Republican Senators to remove the only obstacle in the way of peace.

General Grant the past three weeks has declared himself in favor of universal suffrage, and declares that it must be the ruling idea of his administration, if elected in 1868.

Senate not in Session---House Proceedings---Mr. Stevens' Bill Admitting Southern States to Representation Passed---Ayes 108, Nays 35.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, May 14, 1868.

The SPEAKER presented a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury, with a statement of judgments obtained in the Court of Claims and paid by the Treasury Department. Referred.

Mr. DONNELLY introduced a bill to extend the limits of certain land grants in Iowa and Missouri. Referred.

Mr. GARFIELD, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a joint resolution directing the Secretary of War to sell a tract of land belonging to the United States in Baltimore, known as the site of Fort Covington. The resolution was modified simply to authorize the sale and in other respects, and adopted.

Mr. PILE introduced a bill to establish telegraphic communication between military posts, and for the construction of a telegraph line to Puget Sound. Referred.

Mr. ECKLEY, from the Committee on Public Lands, made an adverse report on the bill, repealing the law which requires a land grant to railroad companies to carry troops and property of the United States free of charge. Tabled.

Mr. WASUBURNE, Mass., from the Committee on Claims, made an adverse report on the Senate bill to confirm certain sales made by the Direct Tax Commissioners for South Carolina to persons in the army, navy or marine corps. Tabled.

Mr. WASHBURNE also reported a bill appropriating $47,000 to pay certain indebtedness of the Agricultural Department incurred prior to the 1st of July, 1867. Passed.

Mr. DRIGGS, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported back the Senate amendment to the House joint resolution concerning certain lands granted to railroads in Michigan and Wisconsin. The joint resolution extends to the 31st December, 1872, the time within which the roads must be completed. The Senate amendment confines the operation of the bill to the Fon Du Lac and Escamba, and Marquette and Ontanagon. The Committee reports an amendment providing that if the Marquette and Ontanagon Comp any shall not have completed ten additional miles of railroad before the 1st of January, 1869, and ten miles every year thereafter, the Legislature of Michigan may declare the grant of lands forfeited, and confer the grant on some other company.

Mr. LAWRENCE, Ohio, desired to offer a resolution requiring the land to be sold only to actual settlers in quantities not greater than a quarter section to each, and at a price not exceeding $1.25 per acre.

Mr. DRIGGS refused to allow the amendment to be offered.

After some discussion the amendment reported by the Committee was agreed to, and as thus amended the Senate amendment was concurred in.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia and Alabama to representation in Congress.

Messrs. PRUYN and BROOKS spoke against the bill and Messrs. PAINE and BINGHAM in favor.

Mr. WOODBRIDGE moved to amend the bill by striking out the word Alabama wherever it occurs, on the ground that a majority of the voters of that State did not vote in favor of the Constitution as provided in the reconstruction law.

Mr. FARNSWORTH denied that such was the requirement of the law, asserting that the provision was that Congress should be satisfied that a majority of the people of the State were in favor of it. He declared the larger portion of the registered voters of Alabama had voted for the Constitution than any other State.

Mr. BENJAMIN moved to amend by striking out the first section of the clause prohibiting the change in the Constitution and inserting instead of it the words "That the Constitution of said States shall never be amended or changed so as to discriminate in favor of or against any citizens or class of citizens in the United States in reference to the right to vote who are now entitled to vote by said Constitution."

Mr. BINGHAM said he would accept that as a substitute for his own amendment.

Mr. RAUM asked leave to offer the following amendment:

It is hereby made the duty of the President, within ten days after receiving official information of the ratification of said amendment by the Legislature of either of the said States, to issue a proclamation announcing that fact.

Mr. STEVENS—I agree to it. It is part of the bill now.

Mr. BROMWELL made some remarks in criticism and condemnation of the Democratic party.

The question was then taken on Mr. Woodbridge's amendment to strike out Alabama, and it was rejected—yeas 60, nays 74, as follows:

Senator Henderson and His Constituents—He Declines to Resign—Impeachment Managers in Session—Witnesses Subpœnaed—Senator Fessenden's Reasons for Voting for Impeachment.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 14, 1868.

IMPEACHMENT MANAGERS IN SESSION.

The Impeachment Managers are in session to-day. They have summoned W. W. Worden, of the President's household, to appear before them, and it is said that other witnesses have been subpœnaed.

Senator Henderson has addressed the following letter to the Missouri Congressional delegation:

Washington City, May 14th, 1868.—GENTLEMEN: In an interview with you on the day before yesterday, you suggested that my position on the impeachment question was against the almost unanimous wish of the Union party of our State, and that you feared violence and bloodshed might follow the President's acquittal. Inasmuch as I owed my position here to that party, and expected to support its men and measures in the coming canvass, especially as I depreciated the consequences you thought might follow, though I did not anticipate nor fear any such results, yet in order to place myself beyond the possible censure of those whom I knew to be my best friends, I at once proposed to forward to the Governor my resignation as Senator. To this you did not consent, and I then requested you, as my friends, to consult together and determine what you thought was proper for me to do under the circumstances. You did so, and the result was that, believing the safety of the country and interests of the people of the United States demanded the immediate removal of Andrew Johnson, you asked me to withhold my vote on any article upon which I cannot vote affirmatively. So soon as I had time to read and consider this paper, I found I could not comply with the request without that degree of humiliation and shame to which I was satisfied you, as honorable gentlemen, would not wish to subject me. I had already spoken in the Senate, and I thought conclusively, at least to my mind, against eight of the articles, and had informed you I was no less decided in my judgment against the sufficiency of two others, leaving me in doubt only as to one. If with these clear convictions, expressed in full Senate, I should now sit silent, I would forfeit my self-respect and stand defenseless before the world. You agreed to reconsider your opinion, and although you at first resolved to adhere to it, I am gratified that on further reflection you agreed with me it was quite unreasonable. But you still insisted, as your opinion, my duty required my vote to be so cast or withheld, as might seem necessary on some articles, so as to secure conviction. I at once mentioned the difficulty attending the suggestion. Senators had been and were so reticent on the subject that I could not tell their position. I knew them to be greatly divided, and that they were even liable to change their minds at any moment before the final vote should be taken; but as you expressed a desire I should not resign unless it became absolutely necessary to have a successor in my place favorable to conviction, I promised to give you the result of my conclusion as soon as I could ascertain the probable result on one or two articles. I have endeavored to ascertain that result. I cannot, and I now write you to say, and be assured that I say it in that spirit of friendship and kindness which you have always extended to me, and which now undiminished I have ever entertained for you, that your request on this subject has placed me in the most difficult and delicate position possible, which I am satisfied you do not realize. I have given it the most serious consideration, both on your and my account, and especially on account of the gravity and the importance of the subject presented. The result of that consideration is, that having been compelled as a member of the Senate to take an oath to do impartial justice according to the law and the evidence, I cannot now honorably escape the duties imposed by the obligation. It was for the House of Representatives to prefer the articles of impeachment. It is for the Senate to try them. And the members of the House have no more right to dictate or control the judgment of the Senate in the premises, than members of a grand jury presenting an indictment have to influence a verdict of a petit jury on the trial of crime, and I do not thus speak for the purpose of reflecting on your action, for I distinctly disclaim such purpose, knowing what you have done and said springs from the best motives as well as kindest of feeling. My duty in the premises I cannot shirk, nor can I divide it with others. If I resign before the conclusion of the trial. It strikes me I would come short of the obligations of my oath, and unnecessarily subject myself to the imputation of weakness or something worse. If I remain and do my duty, my constituents may condemn, but will not when they hear my reasons. The people of Missouri have no reason or desire I hope to strike me down without a hearing. If I stay and withhold my vote, as you request, you are aware the result would be the same as if I voted adversely. If I resign, and perhaps a successor should come, perhaps a proper sense of delicacy would prevent him from violating every precedent on this subject by casting a vote at all. If he sat silent, it would be the same in result as if he voted adversely. If he voted affirmatively, and thus secured conviction, this manner of obtaining conviction would likely neutralize in the end every advantage to be derived from impeachment. Hence I have resolved to remain at my post, and discharge my duty as it is given me to know it, and appealing to heaven for the rectitude of my intentions and the integrity of my conduct, I shall follow the dictates of my conscience to the end of the trial, and throw myself on the judgment of a generous people for my vindication.

Your friend,

JNO. B. HENDERSON.

To Messrs. Geo. W. Anderson, C. A. Newcomb, J. W. McClung, Wm. A. Pile, J. J. Gravelly, B. F. Loan, J. F. Benjamin.

SENATOR FESSENDEN'S POSITION.

The following is a brief abstract of Mr. Fessenden's speech in the secret session of the Senate:

Mr. Fessenden reviewed the whole case, article by article. He opposed the construction put by the Managers on the first article, which charges the President with an attempt to evade the Tenure-of-Office act, as leading to a life tenure of office, arguing that the power of removal belongs to the Executive, and contending that having been appointed by President Lincoln, Mr. Stanton did not come within the scope of the law in question, and that the President had a clear right to remove him, and consequently cannot be held guilty under the first article. Even, however, if I were not satisfied of the construction given herein of the act of March 2d, 1867, I should still hesitate to convict the President of a high misdemeanor for what was done by him on the 21st of February. The least that could be said of the application of the first section of that act to the case of Mr. Stanton is, that its application is doubtful. If in fact Mr. Stanton comes within it, the act done by the President does not remove him and he is still Secretary of War. It was at most an attempt on the part of the President, which he might well believe he had a right to make. The evidence utterly fails to show any design on the part of the President to affect his purpose by force or violence. It was but the simple issuance of a written order, which failed of its intended effect. To depose the constitutional chief magistrate of a great nation, elected by the people, on grounds so slight, in my judgment would be an abuse of the power conferred on the Senate, which could not be justified to the country or the world. To construe such an act as a high crime or misdemeanor within the meaning of the Constitution, would, when the passions of the hour had time to cool, be looked upon with wonder, if not derision. Worse than this, it would inflict a wound upon the very structure of our Government, which time would fail to cure, and which might eventually destroy it.

Mr. Fessenden next argued against the second article, showing that a vacancy having been legally made, the President had a legal right to make temporary appointments, even without the consent of the Senate. If, consequently, Stanton does not come within the first section of the tenure act, a legal vacancy existed, and a material part of the accusation in the second article is gone. The first two articles failing, the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth must fail with them. Article nine is, in my judgment, disproved by the evidence. In regard to the speech by the President, he held the President could not be convicted for an assertion of even unconstitutional doctrine, if he has not made any attempt to give political effect to the doctrine by action on it.

He then prodeeded to discuss some points made in the argument, saying there was great diversity of opinion, relative to the nature of what constitutes crimes and misdemeanors. The power of impeachment as conferred by the Constitution is in very general terms. Considering the case of impeachment as vaguely founded by law, he thinks the case of impeaching the elective Chief Magistrate of a great nation for political causes an unnecessarily harsh measure and one hardly worth resorting to, except upon clear and unquestionable ground.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The House Committee on Appropriations have finished the work upon the Indian bill, and it will be reported to-day if an opportunity offers. The whole amount appropriated is $22,214,283, about one-third less than the aggregate of last year. The Secretary's estimates called for $3,240,152. The same Committee will finish the Deficiency bill, which is nearly completed, at their meeting to-morrow, and report it at once to the House. The work of the session, so far as appropriations are concerned, is nearly done, and if the session is prolonged, it will bo upon questions of finance.

A SPRING CAROL.

BY FANNY STEVENS BRUCE.

The sun lies bright upon field and fallow,
Warming the earth, storm-chilled and callow,
Where late the crusted snow-drift lay;
And in the sheltered garden places
The crocuses show their sweet young faces.
From rosy dawn to evening gray.

The sunsets wear a summery splendor;
The noontide airs are bland and tender;
The heavens look nearer every hour;
The brown buds swell in each birchen hollow;
The maple's feathery bloom will follow,
And then the arbutus's lovely dower.

The resinous breath of pines and larches
Floats through the forest's winding arches;
The brooklet's garrulous tongue is free;
And by and by will the violet blossom
The tremulous wind flower will toss and toss on
The tremulous wind flower will toss and toss on
Low southern slope and fertile lea.

Hark! do you hear that wordless singing?
That is a bob-o-link, lily swinging
On yonder tasseled alder spray;
And if you bend your ear and listen,
With heart a-hush and eyes a-glisten,
You may hear the step of the coming May.

O red blood, chilled by the March gales' blowing;
O white limb, longing for green fields, glowing
With yellow of buttercup, shimmer of bird;
O young eye, tired of the dazzling glory
Of frozen lake and mountain hoary;
O heart, by grateful memories stirred,

Of pleasant scenes in summer weather—
Brighten and quicken all together,
And rival the robins as you sing—
With odorous breeze and babbling water—
A welcome to Nature's peerless daughter—
The beauteous-faced and beauteous Spring.

The New Internal Revenue Bill.

Respecting the provisions of the new Internal Revenue Bill, which Mr. Schenck, as Chairman, has just reported from the Committee on Ways and Means in the House of Representatives, the New York Evening Post makes the following remarks: Many of the provisions appear to be substantial improvements, while others are experiments, the effect of which may be regarded as still uncertain.

The Internal Revenue, under this bill, is to be collected under a department of the government, independent of the treasury; its head to be a commissioner, with an assistant, six deputies and a solicitor. The appointing power of the officers of the department is vested in the commissioner.

It is proposed to appoint a supervisor of revenue in every judicial district, who shall have a general control over the collection of the taxes in the district, and shall superintend the revenue collectors and subordinate officers with power to transfer or suspend the local inspectors, gaugers and storekeepers. These officers, intermediate between the department at Washington and the officers of the Congressional districts, can only fail to be useful, if corrupt or weak men are appointed.

The provisions relating to distilled spirits which fill a great part of the whole act, are an improvement on any former law; and yet sadly imperfect. The requirement that the distiller shall own the fee simple of the distillery property is important, and will do something to check fraud.

The Eight-Hour Law of Pennsylvania.

The following is the text of the "Eight-Hour Law" passed by the last Legislature:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That on and after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, eight hours of labor, between the rising and the setting of the sun, shall be deemed and held to be a legal day's work, in all cases of labor and service by the day, where there is no contract or agreement to the contrary.

SEC. 2. This act shall not apply to or in any way affect farm or agricultural labor or service by the year, month or week; nor shall any person be prevented, by anything herein contained, from working as many hours over-time or extra work as he or she may see fit, the compensation to be agreed upon between the employer and the employé.

SEC. 3. All other acts or parts of acts relating to the hours of labor which shall constitute a day's work in this State are hereby repealed.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, May 14, 1868.

The general markets are quiet and devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. Some few articles are a little "offish," under the influence of unfavorable advices from abroad, but there are no important changes in values.

APPLES—Quiet and unchanged; regular sales at $6 to $7 per bbl.

POTATOES—Peach Blows are in good demand, and we can report regular sales in store at $1,50, to $1,55, and some holders are asking $1,60.

MILL FEED—Dull but unchanged; sales on wharf at $1,65 to $1,70 for Bran, and $1,15 to $2,20 for Middlings.

HAY—Wagon Hay is selling at $24 to $28. Baled Hay ranges from $20 to $25, according to quality.

GRAIN—Winter Wheat is scarce and steady but unchanged; sale of 600 bushels Prime Red Winter at $2,10. Corn may be quoted at $1,10 for white and mixed, and $1,11 to $1,12 for prime yellow. Oats quiet and unchanged; sales at 80c to 81 on wharf and track, and 83 to 85c, in store. Sale of 1 car Rye at $2. Nothing doing in Barley—none in market.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches firm but unchanged 13¼ to 14c for halves. Apples plenty and dull at 7 to 7½c.

LARD OIL—Is a shade easier, and we now quote at $1,23 to $1,25 for No. 2, and $1,53 to $1,55 for No. 1.

SEEDS—There is no life whatever in the seed market, and there is not enough doing to establish quotations. Flaxseed is wanted, but there is none offering.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged at 14¼c for Shoulders; 16½ to 17c for Ribbed and 18½c to 19c for Clear sides; 19½ to 20c for Plain, and 20½ to 21c for Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Lard, 19½c to 20c. Mess Pork, $20,50 to $21,00. Dried Beef, 22 to 23c.

BUTTER—Is less active and a little weak, and prices are a shade lower; prime to choice Roll is quoted at 35 to 38c:

EGGS—Dull and drooping; we now quote 18 to 19c.

FLOUR—Is quiet but steady at former quotations; we quote at $11,00 to $11,75 for Spring Wheat; $12,00 to $12,75 for Winter Wheat, and $14 to $16 for fancy brands. Rye flour firm at $10 to $10,25.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, May 14, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market was again very unsettled and dull to-day, and, compared with yesterday, prices are a shade lower; we heard of offers to sell on this later, which is equivalent to spot, at 11c, against 11¼ to 11¾c yesterday, and from the fact that there were no sales, it seems evident that there were no buyers even at the reduction. Since Monday, spot oil has declined a full cent, as there were quite a number of sales made then at 12c, and one at 12¼c, while, as we have already stated, it was offered to-day at 11c. For future deliveries, there is nothing doing, and in the present condition of the market, it is impossible to give quotations, in the absence of sales. Sales were reported as having been made at Oil City to-day at what was considered equivalent to $4,40, delivered on the alley cars.

REFINED—There are but few new characteristics in the market for bonded oil worthy of special notice, with the exception that it seems to be a little weaker, and prices are a shade lower. There was but a single sale reported, 1,500 for first half of June at 30c—it was also rumored that there had been a sale of 5,000 bbls for the same delivery, at same price. May oil may be quoted nominally at 31½ to 32c, and all the year, buyer's option, at 32½c. There is no new developments in regard to the "corner," at least, we heard of none, and there is no change in the situation compared with yesterday, excepting that the market is a little weaker. Whether the movement will be successful or not time alone will show; we shall doubtless know within the next ten days.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by river and rail reported to-day were as follows:

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, May 14, 1868.

CATTLE.

The market has again been quiet and dull at these yards during the past week, the operations in the aggregate being very light, though fully up and possibly somewhat in excess of the week preceding. The supply, as usual, was exceedingly small, only about twelve car loads in the pens to-day, when there ought to be from 1,000 to 1,000 head, and while this continues to be the case, it is not to be expected that eastern buyers will come here, knowing as they do, that they could get nothing if they did. There are various reasons assigned for the stagnation which has prevailed in the cattle trade at these yards for several months past, one of which is the fact that cattle can be moved from the west to the east at a much less cost by other routes than through this place, and this accounts for the very light arrivals. We heard a stock dealer assert that he could ship cattle from St. Louis to Philadelphia or New York for thirty dollars per car load less than by shipping by way of Pittsburgh, and we presume that this is equally applicable to Chicago. Now, this should not be the case, and unless some measures are taken, and that, too, right speedily, to remedy this evil, the Central Yards instead of being regarded as a large wholesale market, will be looked upon as a mere transfer station; indeed, it can hardly be called anything else now. What we want here is to foster and encourage the stock trade, instead of trying to drive it away. Why two years ago, there was more business at these yards than at any other between New York and Chicago; it was no unusual thing to ship seventy and even eighty car loads per week to Philadelphia alone, besides pretty liberal shipments to Baltimore and New York. For the last five or six months, however, there have been scarcely any buyers from either of these points, and until the discrimination we have already referred to has been obviated, no improvement need be expected.

There were some few sales during the week. Stock cattle are in fair demand at 5½ to 6c, though really good stockers cannot be brought here and sold much below 6¼c. Prime fat steers, suitable for retailing in the eastern markets, may be quoted at 9 to 9½c.

SHEEP.

Notwithstanding the arrivals of Sheep were unusually large this week, the market was remarkably active and firm, and, if anything, prices ruled higher. There was a pretty full attendance of buyers both from Philadelphia and New York, and the sales for both of these points were large. Quotations may be fairly given at 5½ to 7½ for common to prime heavy fat Sheep; one drove of "scalawags" sold at 3¼. The Sheep, as a general thing, were of much better quality this week than usual, and it was this that caused buyers to take hold with more freedom than usual. Wm. Reis sold a drove 721 head of fairish Ohio Sheep, averaging 84 pounds, at 6½; Hesser & Co., of Philadelphia, bought several car loads of nice fat Sheep at 7¼, and this may be regarded as the top of the market. As has been the case for some time past, there is little or no demand for common and inferior grades of Sheep, as it does not pay to ship them east.

HOGS.

The Hog market has been moderately active this week, the demand being fully up to the supply, though, compared with last week, prices are a shade lower. Light averages, such as are usually bought for New York, are off from a ¼ to ¾. Prime heavy averages, such as are bought for Philadelphia market are also a shade lower, the bulk of the sales ranging from 9¾ to 10¼, according to quality and condition—one bunch of extra brought 10,40.

RIVER NEWS.

Both rivers are again swelling, under the influence of the recent rains, with nine feet in the Monongahela, and over ten in the Allegheny. A steady rain fell during the greater part of Wednesday night and nearly all day yesterday, and at this writing there is every appearance of another freshet.

At Oil City the Allegheny was rising slowly yesterday forenoon with forty-one inches in the channel. It had rained during the night, and was still raining in the forenoon. The Youghiogheny was reported rising rapidly yesterday.

The J. N. McCullough cleared for Cincinnati yesterday, and if the Kate Putnam did not get off for St. Louis last night, she will leave early this morning.

The Armerica, Capt. A. C. McCallum, is now in turn, and will be the first boat out for St. Louis.

The St. Charles arrived from Cincinnati last evening, and will return again as usual this evening at 5 o'clock. She is now so well and favorably known in the trade, that the mere mention of the time of her departure is all necessary. Capt. C. A. Dravo is still in command, and Capt. Andrew Robinson, Jr., still retains charge of the office.

The Sam. Roberts, with twelve barges, containing 95,000 bushels of coal left for Louisville yesterday.

Alluding to the brisk condition for freight, the Dubuque Herald says: The strike to secure freights by river from this place has began in earnest, and the battle promises to be long—victory coming to the line with the longest purse. Shippers are button-holed, begged, implored for freight, at almost any price—one agency offering nineteen cents per hundred on grain in sacks to St. Louis, and another agency offering to take the whole sack there for that price. At this rate, shipments will soon command a premium, and a good bonus paid for the privilege of conveyance. While the fight is progressing shippers can laugh, for they seldom receive such advantages. "The combat depens; on, ye braves, who rush to glory," or bankruptcy.

RECENT STEAMBOAT TRANSFERS AT ST. LOUIS.—H. S. Turner, one-third by Patrick Yore, for $12,000, to John B. C. Lucas, April 2d.

Isabella, Henry McPherson of Boonville sells two-eights to Fred. Dozier, for $1,500, March 25th.

Isabella, John T. Dozier sells to Ben. Johnson and Fred. Dozier, five-eights for $3,750, March 16th.

Walter B. Dance, J. J Sylvester sells to Boylan & Getty one-eighth for $4,000, April 1st.

Mollie Able, H. H. Symmes sells to Dan. Able one-third for $10,000, April 2d.

Guidon, D. M. G. Foster, of Brooklyn, New York, sells to Dan Able, of St. Louis, three-eights for the sum of $3,200, March 24th.

Guidon, Dan Able and the Memphis and Arkansas Packet Company, sell to H. H. Symmes, the whole boat for $10,000, March 30th.

The Nashville Republican Banner, of Sunday, says: The rate of freight from Clarksville to New York has been advanced from 50 to 75 cents per hundred pounds on tobacco. Shippers, however, are not disposed to make shipments at this price, and there is, consequently, very little freight being forwarded. The agents contend that the net cost of shipping from Clarksville to New York, is 72 cents, notwithstanding the rate has been as low as 50 cents for the past ten days.

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Tuesday, says: Arrived—Belle St. Louis, from Memphis; Atlantic, from Arkansas River; Pembina and Antelope, from St. Paul; and Liberty No. 4, from Ohio River. Departed—Hawkeye, for St. Paul; Virginia, from Omaha; Mollie Able, for New Orleans; Mary Davage and barges and Anteiope, for Pittsburgh; Shamrock, for Cincinnati. The river rose quite rapidly this forenoon All the upper streams are rising. Business brisk, especially with the upper rivers.

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Gazette of Wednesday: The Maggie Hays, St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed up yesterday with a barge. Boat and barge were well laden. Pilots, James and Nich. Whitten.

The Delaware, Nashville to Pittsburgh, passed up yesterday, after receiving here 50 bales cotton and considerable other freight, consisting of oil, seed, etc. Pilots, Wm. Gosney and Robert Greenlee.

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

GOLD closed yesterday in New York at 140, a slight advance.

THE Pan-Handle Railroad Company are selling half-fare tickets for the Republican National Convention.

THE P. F. W. & C. R. R. offer to run from this city to Chicago and return for $700 a car—to accommodate persons attending the National Convention—fifty persons to go in each car. This amounts to $14 for the round trip.

AN air-line railroad has been projected from Omaha to Fort Wayne, under auspices most likely to ensure its accomplishment. It will pass something over one hundred miles south of Chicago, and will shorten the line between Omaha and Fort Wayne by nearly one hundred and twenty miles.

THERE are marked indications of the beginning of a strong movement among Eastern Democrats in favor of PENDLETON'S nomination, upon a platform which shall read any way to suit financial ideas in all latitudes. Governor ENGLISH, of Connecticut, is spoken of in the same connection, for the second place.

IT IS perfectly well known that before the resolution of February 2d, declaring the President's acts illegal, was introduced in the Senate, Mr. TRUMBULL was consulted in relation to it, fully understanding that its passage by the Senate would be followed by a movement in the House for impeachment, and he approved it. There's Senatorial honesty for you!

MR. SEYMOUR has given out that he will accept, under no consideration, the nomination for the Presidency at the hands of the Democratic party. Therein Mr. SEYMOUR develops the large measure of good sense with which he is generally credited. He could not be elected any more than Mr. PENDLETON, his direct opposite. His withdrawal from the cluster of available candidates will not abate the interesting political dilemma into which the Democrats have fallen.

IT is no question of judicial independence which makes the situation at Washington interesting. It is simply one of personal integrity and political fidelity. We have no censure for Senators who should have uniformly held to their opinions, although at variance with their party. Our condemnation is for the recreants, who are not only faithless to their friends, but traitors to themselves, who reveal in the midst of a crisis a duplicity which astonishes their most intimate associates.

MR. HENDERSON, of Missouri, who talked pleasantly of his intentions, has finally concluded to stick with the Conservatives. This is precisely what we predicted he would do. He still talks prettily of his conscience, and all that sort of thing, but we confess to a chronic dislike of men who indulge in that sort of rhetoric. Our experience is that men who prate most about conscience, have commonly least of it. Especially do we detest men who undertake to excuse the basest conduct by the necessity laid on them by their convictions. In nineteen cases out of twenty, such men are engaged in villainy of which they ought to be thoroughly ashamed.

THERE is ample authority for stating that Mr. WADE'S vote, if it will secure impeachment, will be fearlessly given. There has never been a doubt of his intention in that regard, nor, until recently, that such a vote would be accompanied by his simultaneous resignation of the acting Vice Presidency. In view of the shameful intrigue to defeat the demands of the nation, which a few traitors have sought to justify on grounds personal to him as the successor of Mr. JOHNSON, there remains no imperative obligation on him to consult the proprieties of another situation, yet it is probable that the honest old man will adhere to his first determination, untempted by the allurements of an exalted office, and rising to a moral elevation superior to partizan irritations.

THE Conservative press, apologists for the basest political treachery known to our history since the days of JOHN TYLER, unite in representing the adjournment of the Senate as intended to give time for organizing an outside pressure upon the dissentients, and so "coercing a verdict" which, these journals declare, will, if so obtained, be entitled to no respect. Let these journals understand that all the coercion which is proposed is just that which honest men impose on rogues, which true men apply to traitors, which an indignant people does not hesitate to offer to its recreant servants. We heard this same sort of talk about "coercion" and all that, seven years ago; then, as now, it was the specious protestation for covering an intended crime. The people, profiting by past experience, know that a good, wholesome coercion has its uses. Nevertheless, in this case, it can be but an incident of the adjournment which was entirely due to the illness of Senator HOWARD.

THE ARREST OF JUDGMENT.

It is within the range of possibilities that the verdict in Impeachment may be delayed until grave questions of judicial privilege have been investigated and properly disposed of. The first duty of the Senate, sitting as a Court, at whatever stage of its proceedings, is, indispensably, that of maintaining its own purity by purging itself of the taint of corruption. This stigma has been held, from the earliest annals of our race, to be the most shamefully destructive which could attach to the judicial office. Whenever and however charged, if supported by responsible accusations, much more if sustained by prima facie proof, it has been the practice of all nations, in all ages, to defer all other functions of justice to that of self-purification. In the proceedings now pending at Washington, it is understood that grave charges are made involving the most corrupt venality of Senators. An investigation is in progress, and the names of the witnesses to be examined are known. When a prima facie case shall be established, it will be laid before the Senate and the first duty of this body will be to suspend all its other business, of whatever character, even if it includes a judgment after trial, until the truth shall be established and its own purity vindicated. Then, and not until then, can the suspended judgment command the respect of the people.

FAILURE OF IMPEACHMENT.

Notwithstanding the revelation made in the Senate on Tuesday of the existence of a conspiracy on the part of the Conservatives to defeat Impeachment, credulous Republicans have been telegraphing from Washington that a conviction will be secured. It is simply absurd to put any reliance upon these assertions. No substantial facts exist for their corroboration and support. All the indications having reliability, point the other way.

GRIMES, FESSENDEN, HENDERSON, TRUMBULL, and associates, did not commit themselves to the policy they are pursuing, without first obtaining as absolute a certainty of success as such a case admits of. They made sure beforehand who would go with them, and took measures accordingly. While they were thus plotting, they did not fail to give Republican members who were not involved with them possitive assurances that they should vote for some of the Articles of Impeachment. When they gave these assurances, they did not mean to make them good. What they sought was to allay suspicion as to the good faith with which they were acting; to avoid pressure from their constituents; and to lead their more timid associates on to the consummation of the plot. Other Conservatives are now giving like assurances, and with no better intent. It is marvellous if any body is deceived thereby.

The recreant Senators are acting in concert. It is not a case of conscience with them, as they facetiously pretend, but of calculation. They have made their bargain, and mean to fulfill it. Irrevocably committed to each other, to the President, and to the Democratic leaders, they will go through. If any of them still talk smoothly, their purpose is deceitful.

This plot involves much more than the acquittal of the President. Whoever fails to read the auguries, with some degree of exactness, is undeserving of leadership. In so plain a matter to go astray, to inspire hopes only to have them disappointed, to put followers off their guard by incorrectly stating the nature, magnitude and tendency of this menace, are absolutely inexplicable in men who have mingled largely in political movements, or only watched them from afar.

Gen. GRANT is now beset not to accept a nomination from the Republican National Convention, which will assemble at Chicago on next Wednesday. This is the fresh development of the plot. To that end all the conservative Senators are contributing whatever influence remains to them. Having betrayed the Republican party, they now seek to destroy it. That they have produced an impression on one section of the Republican journals is palpable; for they palter, equivocate, palliate, excuse and show a readiness to be carried headlong by the first popular wave that shall set towards a reorganization of political parties. There is nothing wonderful in this; for these journals were never anything more than camp-followers of the Republican cause.

These people all misunderstand the stuff of which the Republican party is made. Among the masses there is no wavering, no despondency, but only a feeling of surging indignation at the unexpected and deep treachery which they have suffered. But they will abate not a jot of their principles or of the resolution to defend them.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILWAY.

The undertaking, which ranks among the grandest of all the works of this marvellous age, is progressing towards completion with unprecedented celerity. The line is now open for six huudred miles west of Omaha, which is twenty-one hundred miles from New York, leaving only twelve hundred miles between the western terminus and the Pacific coast. But, it must not be forgotten that the Central Pacific Railroad Company, whose initial point is Sacramento, have already completed and in operation three hundred miles, stretching eastward to meet the Union Pacific upon its coming. As the distance between Omaha and Sacramento is 1,730 miles, it will be seen that nine hundred miles of the intervening line have been constructed and put into successful operation, leaving only eight hundred and seventy still to be built.

Nor is this all. The Union Pacific have on hand and actually delivered, all the materials requisite for the completion of two hundred additional miles of railway. Of this two hundred miles, one hundred are already graded, and delay is suffered in putting on the superstructure only in consequence of the necessity for constructing bridges over several streams.

This gives a just idea of the amount of work executed by the Company since it commenced operations in May, 1866. Taking this data as the basis for computation, and looking back over the whole history of railway construction, it is manifest that this Company has proceeded twice as fast as any other Company in existence. But, to appreciate this result in the true light, it must be borne in mind that most of this labor has been done in a remote region, sparsely populated, and supplying few or none of the materials required, or of the grticles needful for the subsistence of the hands employed.

The Central Pacific, in completing the three hundred miles of road, already referred to, have climbed the western side of the Sierra Nevada and got down on the eastern side to the great plain of Utah, and expect henceforward to build with the same rapidity as the Union Pacific. In this event, which it is altogether reasenable to anticipate, the two lines will be connected in the autumn of 1870. If this result shall be realized, the whole line will be finished and opened to the trade and commerce of the world five full years before the time stipulated by Congress in framing the law granting governmental aid to the enterprise. That special stipulation was based upon the best engineering computation of what was practicable; but the energy and skill of the Company have surpassed all former calculations, and really inaugurated a new era in railway construction.

The Union Pacific is now at work in the Mountain region, and it was here they naturally expected to encounter the most serious difficulties; yet the fact is that by doubling or trebling the laboring forces they build as rapidly in that high region as they did on the plain. Already they have got fiifty miles west of Evans's Pass, which is the highest and most difficult point they will have to surmount.

By this unexpected rapidity of building both the government and the people will be greatly benefitted; the government by the cheapening of transportation for supplies for the army on the Pacific coast; and the people by obtaining five years sooner than was bargained for, the advantages of direct railway communication between the two oceans, and the consequent quickened facilities of intercourse with China and India and the United States.

The Union Pacific Railway Company have never gone to the people of the United States soliciting subscriptions to their stock. So far they have cheerfully assumed the responsibility themselves. But they have asked the people to take the bonds they are authorized by act of Congress to issue. These bonds are first mortgage; that is, they have priority over the mortgage held by the Government as security for advances of its credit, and consequently, these first mortgage bonds will have to be paid before the Government can realize anything. This may be taken as indicating, not merely the substantial character of the bonds as an investment, but of the estimate put by the Government upon them. The Government stands to them in the relation of a quasi endorser.

The interest on these First Mortgage Bonds, moreover, has so far been paid in gold, and there is a stipulation on their face that they shall be. That the principal itself will be is certain, for that is payable in 1896; a period when the whole country will be again stably settled on a specie basis; and besides the bonds are endorsed in terms making the principal as well as the interest payable in gold. Taking into account that, other conditions being equal, long bonds are uniformly esteemed of greater value than those running for short periods, this loan cannot fail of being regarded with particular favor.

It is deserving of mention, in this connection, that the people of Penusylvania, upon full consideration of the intrinsic importance of this gigantic enterprise, and the remunerating traffic which it already commands, and which will be immensely enhanced upon the completion of the whole line, have already invested over two and a half millions of dollars in the bonds of this Company.

LYMAN TRUMBULL was the real author of the Tenure-of-Office act. On the 13th of January, he voted to reinstate Mr. STANTON, and on the 21st day of February he also voted that his removal was illegal and unconstitutional. By these votes, and upon his responsibility as a Senator, he affirmed the legality of the enactment and pronounced an emphatic judgment of condemnation upon an usurping Executive. By these unhesitating declarations of the co-ordinate branch, the House felt itself authorized, nay, more, instructed to proceed with impeachment, and the country has been inspired with the most confident belief in its successful prosecution. The Senator now retraces his steps, and squarely faces the record of his inevitable condemnation. No apologist for judicial integrity, Senatorial independence or personal purity, can persuade an indignant people to overlook his unblushing and defiant treachery to himself, to his party and to them.

Talk of his Republican integrity! When he, but a year or so ago, was proposed for re-election in Illinois, Republicans in that State, sagacious and uncompromising men, who knew TRUMBULL and understood the duplicity of which he was capable, foresaw the peril to which he would expose the people in a trying hour. They opposed him because he had spared no efforts to injure President LINCOLN, because he sought to cripple the military power over civil traitors in '63, and was directly responsible for the passage of the act which made MILLIGAN'S arrest illegal, because he was often found voting with the Copperheads in important legislative questions and upon appointments to office, because the Illinois Democracy avowed their own preference for him above other Republican candidates, because Copperhead journals in that State were predicting that "he would come out a rousing Copperhead within twelve months," and, finally, because "he would not sustain the House of Representatives and the Republican party in bringing ANDREW JOHNSON to the bar of justice, and impeaching and removing him from office for his crimes and misdemeanors." The wonder is, that Illinois Republicans should have hearkened to his reiterated pledges, or confided in a man already spotted by so much personal and political unreliability. They can now participate in the universal regret.

THE FIRST ARTICLE OF IMPEACHMENT exhibited against the President was framed by the House of Representatives, not only in accordance with its own sense of the legal force and effect of the Office-Tenure Act, but with special reference to the votes given by Conservative Senators, declaring the reasons presented by the President for removing Mr. Stanton to be insufficient. The votes of those Senators restored Mr. Stanton to the War Office. They now declare in the plainest possible terms that the reasons assigned by the President are valid and conclusive. What produced this sudden change of opinion? At Harrisburg and Albany, when members of either House veer about in this way, on questions of great pith and moment, every body accepts the inference that "they have been seen;" that is, that they have sold their votes for a price.

This process of induction is just as applicable to Congress as to State Legislatures. No man familiar with legislative bodies will hesitate to apply the same rules of judgment to members of the Senate of the United States as to members of the Senate of Pennsylvania or New York. We doubt not legislators at Washington are just as approachable with mercenary inducements as legislators elsewhere.

Hence, we are not surprised to hear it announced that the Judiciary Committee of the House have got upon the scent, and have commenced an investigation into the corrupt instrumentalities by which Senators who claim eminent social positions and almost unprecedented conscientiousness were brought to the point of contradicting their own record by acquitting the President. How much or how little the Committee may succeed in bringing to light remains to be seen. Bribing is not done openly, and all parties thereto are interested to prevent exposure. But, whether all the facts are disclosed or none, enough is known to carry moral conviction of the use of corrupt means to the minds of all intelligent individuals.

DEDUCT the estimated value of the railways in Pennsylvania from the aggregate value of roads in the Union, and the balance is less than the annual cost of the liquor drank by American people. This cost is annually more than half the entire sum of the national debt and ten times the value of all the church property in the country, yet these estimates, startling as they are, doubtless fall short of the truth, the liquor sales being computed upon the revenue returns which are confesedly imperfect. The figures are shown in the subjoined table:

ASSURANCES have been given by persons entitled to speak in behalf of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, materially modifying the offer recently made for the completion of the Chartiers Valley Railroad. It is now proposed that if the inhabitants along the line will take $300,000 in stock and secure the right of way and the real estate necessary to operate the road, the work shall be resumed immediately and pushed to consummation. A meeting of the citizens to consider and act upon this offer has been called at Canonsburg at two o'clock on next Saturday afternoon. A strong probability exists that the movement will succeed.

THE STOCKHOLDERS in the new Cincinnati bridge have directed their Construction Committee to commence on the abutments forthwith. The prospect is not encouraging to those who have hoped for a timely Congressional intervention against the proposed obstruction in the channel. Yet the fault is not with the people who are interested in procuring a free navigation, for they have already spoken promptly and emphatically. Let the censure fall, if any where, upon those Representatives from the Ohio Valley who have not found time to introduce the restrictive measures which this case demands.

IN OCTOBER, 1866, Senator TRUMBULL, in a public speech in the Court House Square, at Chicago, "eloquently stated that he was in favor of the immediate impeachment and removal of Johnson." The Chicago Journal, citing this, with his votes in January and February last on the Stanton case, remarks:

"Mr. Trumbull is like the man of whom we read in Sacred Writ, to whom his Lord replied: 'Oh thou wicked servant, out of thine own mouth will I condemn thee.'"

A CONFERENCE of Principals of the Deaf Mute Institutions of the United States will be held this week at the Institution of the Deaf and Dumb in Washington City. The Conference will be in session three days. Of twenty-four institutions in the United States for the instruction of this class of persons, sixteen will be represented. Discussions will be had with a view of securing concerted action as to what degree of prominence should be accorded to the teaching of articulation and reading from the lips. Valuable papers relating to the practice of the art of teaching the deaf and dumb will be read, and the reports of the proceeding will be looked to with much interest.—Chronicle.

THE new fifteen cent notes have just been turned out by the printing division of the Treasury. The notes are of the same width, but somewhat shorter than the twenty-five cent notes. On the right side of the face is an excellent vignette of General Grant, and on the left a vignette of General Sherman. Between the vignettes are the words, "Fifteen Cents," prominently displayed, and immediately beneath the figures "15." The back is similar in appearance to that of the twenty-five cent notes, with the denomination on each end.

Impeachment—Rumors at the Capital.

The speeches of Fessenden and Trumbull are described as lawyers' arguments in behalf of the President. Henderson contended that the acquittal of the President would be the salvation of the Republican party, and bring to it 300,000 votes.

Senator Anthony is now given up as a convert to the President's side. He has not spoken, and probably will not, but in a conversation to-night with Hon. E. D. Washburne, of the House of Representatives, he defended those Repuublicans who had spoken against conviction, thus showing his own inclination.

Senator Morton is said to have made a terrible reply to Senators Fessenden and Trumbull on Monday, during the secret session of the Senate, charging them with giving the lie to their previous statements concerning the Tenure of Office act and the removal of Secretary Stanton.

No one can imagine, without participating in it, the feeling which exists to-night. The worst panics of the war did not approach it, and it is noticeable that those who suffered fear and anguish when our armies were defeated are the ones who suffer the most now. Of course there have been severe denunications of the "defeaters." but it is improbable that any one of them has been more roundly abused than Chief Justice Chase. Rumor has it that he has so far forgotten his position as to intervene directly in influencing the votes of Senators by expression of opinions adverse to conviction on many, if not all, the articles.

A large party of Tennessee Radicals arrived here to-day to manipulate Senator Fowler, and they hold a meeting to-night to consider the situation. Grant held a long conference with Wade yesterday, by appointment, at Wade's room in the Washington House, at which several Radical Senators were present by invitation. Wade's room is said to be in charge of an extra watchman who guards it night and day.

It is believed that a plot to secure acquittal has been arranged for a week. There is not a doubt but Fessenden, Trumbull, Grimes and Henderson have understood each other for several days, though they have contrived to keep their most intimate friends in the House in the dark on the subject. It is rumored to-night, that these Senators have an understanding with the President, by which he agrees to behave himself in future.

The House, by one majority, has agreed to take a recess for the Chicago Convention, but it is not believed the Senate will agree to it. Should impeachment fail, much of the interest now felt in the Convention here would be lost. It is reported that General Grant would not allow the use of his name if Republicans should fail to quarrelling upon impeachment.

A dispatch to the Advertiser says:

The Impeachers have certainly recovered from their despondency. They have canvassed the doubtful Senators and received positive assurances of a vote on one or more articles of impeachment, so as to insure the conviction of the President.

Mr. Stanton feels much chagrined at the hesitation of Senators to remove the President, and will instantly resign in the event of acquittal. His friends charge Senators with a breach of faith, as he only consented to retain office on the positive pledges of the impeachment and removal of the President.

Mr. Stanton's resignation is deprecated as a party loss, on account of its influence upon the Southern elections which are yet to take place.

The rumors that Gen. Grant is in favor of acquittal are unfounded.

Forney will probably be restored to the Secretaryship of the Senate through the influence of Sumner, Chandler and the Radical Senators, who will oppose the acceptance of his resignation.

All the doubtful Senators will be made to realize that a vote for the President will involve their expulsion from office and from the party.

BEWARE

Of that remorseless and insidious destroyer of the human race,

CONSUMPTION.

Check and conquer its advances, lest you fall the victim. When attacked with any of its preliminary symptoms, no matter how slight, be on your guard and promptly use the remedy ere too late.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is an old, well tried, certain and standard remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain or Oppression in the Chest or Lungs, and all Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs. Its sure and certain efficacy has been fully tested and endorsed for many years by numbers of well-known citizens in our midst, and their certificates are on record. Have you a cough which has gradually increased from a slight one to one of permanent standing? Lose no time, but procure a bottle of DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP, which will surely relieve you of the dangerous premonitory symptoms and effect a permanent cure. Do you spend miserable days and long sleepless nights of torture and pain from attacks of Asthma or Difficulty of Breathing? Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup will act promptly, relieve you, and gradually restore you to your freedom of pain, and sound, pleasant sleep. Are your lungs sore and irritated, indicating inflammation? This is one of the most dangerous symptoms, and should be promptly removed. Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup will heal the soreness, allay the inflammation, and restore the lungs to their prestine health and vigor. This Cough Syrup is pleasant and agreeable to take, while powerful and sure in its action. For sale by all Druggists in the country.

AVOID POISON.

Invalid reader, do you know what nine-tenths of the bitter compounds you are solicited by the proprietors to accept as universal panaceas are composed of? Give heed for a moment. They are manufactured from unpurified alcohol, containing a considerable portion of fusil oil—a poison almost as deadly as prussic acid. The basis of the regular tinctures of the Materia Medica is the same. No amount of "herbal extracts" can overcome the bad tendency of this pernicious element. The essence of such Rye, thoroughly rectified, is the only stimulant which can be safely used as a component of a tonic, alterative and anti-bilious medicine, and HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is the only medicinal preparation in the world in which this article is used as an ingredient. Hence the extraordinary effects of this great specific. It gives strength without producing excitement. No other tonic does this. All the ordinary Bitters flush the face and affect the brain. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS diffuses an agreeable calm through the nervous system, promotes digestion and produces sleep. No other tonic so quickly revives the exhausted physical energies, restores the appetite and removes the gloom and depression which always accompanies weakness of the bodily powers. It purges from the system the morbid humors which retard its natural functions, and which bring paleness to the cheek and suffering to the brow. It banishes those clogs upon pleasure, restores the system to high health, and necessarily proves a valuable adjunct to the digestive organs. A trial is all that is needed to establish it in the confidence of the skeptic.

ANOTHER CURE OF DEAFNESS.

I lost my hearing during the last year. Part of the time I was totally deaf. In April of this year I was induced, from an advertisement, to make application to DR. KEYSER, 120 Penn street, Pittsburgh. After having tried various medicines from doctors, without any benefit, I have been under Dr. Keyser's treatment now for nearly two months, and am entirely restored to my hearing, so that I can hear a pin drop. JOHN SCANLAN,
Coal Bluffs, Washington Co., Pa.

ANOTHER CURE.

A man called to-day at Dr. Keyser's office to inform him of a great cure made by his LUNG CURE, or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE. All these cures are made with the Doctor's preparations, he desires it to be distinctly understood that most of his great cures are made in accordance with the established laws that govern the science of medicine, in which he has been engaged for the past twenty-five years. Last week he was also in receipt of a letter from a clergyman in the State of Ohio, detailing another most wonderful cure.

CITY OF PITTSBURGH WATER LOAN.

PROPOSALS for $250,000 of the Bonds of the "Water Extension Loan,"

Will be received at the office of the CITY CONTROLLER, Fourth street.

These are COUPON BONDS, bearing interest at the rate of SEVEN PER CENT. per annum, payable semi-annually, at the office of the City Treasurer, and the Bonds are to be paid off in twenty-five years from April 1, 1868.

By Act of Assembly the Revenue of the Water Works is pledged for the payment of the Bonds and Coupons, and the latter are by law made receivable for Water Rents, and the Act authorizing the Loan creates a SINKING FUND of not less than two per cent. of all bonds which may have been issued in pursuance of said Act. The Councils are bound to appropriate annually a sufficient sum for interest, and not less than two per cent. of all bonds which may have issued to go into the Sinking Fund.

The proceeds of these Bonds can only be used for the extension and improvement of the City Water Works, which will increase the revenue, while at present it is far greater than is required to insure the payment of interest and retirement of the Bonds.

The Bonds are EXEMPT FROM STATE, COUNTY and CITY TAX, which, together with all the foregoing advantages, make the Bonds the most desirable security offered to the public.

Bids under par will not be considered.

By order of Finance Committee,

The Great Pacific Railroad Line, extending 1731 miles from Omaha, on the Missouri River, to the tide-waters of the Pacific Ocean, is being built by two powerful Companies—THE UNION PACIFIC, beginning at Omaha, building west, and the Central Pacific of California, beginning at Sacramento, building east, until the two roads shall meet.

Both Companies have prosecuted the work with great vigor, the Union Pacific having already expended over

And the Central over TWENTY MILLIONS, upon their respective parts of the undertaking. THE UNION PACIFIC HAVE COMPLETED 550 MILES—have iron and other materials for two hundred miles more upon the ground, and one hundred additional miles are ready for the track. They will have a much larger force employed this year than ever before, and it is expected that between will be in operation during 1868. There seems to be no reasonable doubt that the distance between Omaha and Sacramento will be traversed by rail in 1870.

THE GOVERNMENT GRANTS 12,800 acres of land, and its Bonds to the average amount of $28,000 per mile, to aid in the construction of the line, and authorizes the issue of the First Mortgage Bonds now offered for sale, to the same amount and no more. The Government takes a SECOND lien, and gives to the First Mortgage Bondholder a prior lien for their security, to which a large paid-up capital is added. The Bonds cannot be issued except as each section of twenty miles is accepted by Government commission, so that they always represent a real property.

It is universally admitted that on the completion of the Union Pacific Railroad, its through business will make it one of the most profitable in the world—but its way or local business is already several times the interest on its bonds; so that, if not another mile were built, they would be a secure investment.

THE NET EARNINGS for eight months of last year on an average of 386 miles are officially reported at $1,069,136, while the interest on all the Bonds it could issue on that length of road for that time, reduced to currency, was only $345,856.

The amount paid by the Government for the transportation of troops, munitions, stores and mails has been, and doubtless will continue to be, much more than the interest on the United States Second Mortgage Bonds. If it is not, the charter provides that after the road is completed, and until said bonds and interest are paid, at least five per cent. of the net earnings of the road shall be applied to such payment.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT.,

AND IT IS BELIEVED THAT THEY WILL SOON BE AT A PREMIUM.

The Company have but a very limited supply of their Bonds remaining on hand, but any subscriptions accepted to a greater amount than can be filled from Bonds now in the Company's possession, will be supplied from the New Bonds to be issued on that portion of the road completed in the Spring, in the order in which they are received.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;
HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

A RIVER BOTTOM FARM OF 76 ACRES, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from the city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, May 14, 1868.

The constant conflicting rumors regarding the probable result of the President's trial, and, especially, whether a vote will be taken on Saturday, keeps business in financial matters very inactive. What effect the President's conviction will have on the gold premium, and government bonds has found various interpretations, but all arguments are calculated only on the immediate effect, whilst ultimately the market must rise in either case. The President's conviction will be followed by such financial measures, which must lead to expansion and increase of currency, and his acquittal will give Democratic leaders such a sway that the question of paying off the national debt by new promises to pay, and a reduction in interest may cause a return of bonds, and, in turn, compel further shipments of coin. Any increase of coin shipments above the present rate will drain the country completely out of hard money.

In government bonds dealings have come to a stand-still, and everybody is awaiting the result of the Saturday's session of the United States Senate. The ease in money on call and the probable higher premium on gold will likely stimulate purchases of bonds, at first for foreign shipments, and again to reap the benefit of the interest accrued on new Five Twenties. The demand for Five Twenties may further be increased by the forcible conversion of Seven Thirties within a month. Everything considered, higher prices for bonds and stocks, that are readily convertible into money, will likely ensue.

In stocks scarcely any movement can be reported, except an upward tendency in Fort Wayne. It was whispered among the knowing ones that a sharp advance would take place in this stock, and many made purchases on that account, but the leaders of the movement expected a much quicker advance in order to realize and depress the market to buy up at the decline, but could get but little stock at below par, those having bought at 105, bought in at lower rates to equalize. The article in the Herald was intended to scare a few weak holders, but few men will touch that stock that are not able to hold out under a decline.

In local securities scarcely anything is done; those who wish to sell cannot get their prices, and those wishing to buy do not care for buying anything that cannot find a ready sale in case they have to realize. The want of exchange where buyers and sellers can meet has long been felt.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 139⅞; 1881 bonds, 113¾; 1862 5-20s, 108¼; 1864 do, 107; 1865 do, 107½; Consols, 109¾; 10-40s, 103¼; 7-30s, 107¾.

Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 84½; Fort Wayne, 107½; North Western, common 67¼; North Western—preferred, 77¼; New York Central, 128¼; Erie, 69¾; Old Southern, 86¼; Ohio & Mississippi, 30¼; Merchants Union Express, 29; Western Union Telegraph, 38¾. Mining Shares—Corydon, 25; Quartz Hill, 100; Quicksilver, 31½.

—Notwithstanding that our exports are now in excess of imports, and the balance of European trade has at length turned in our favor, the shipments of gold have been very heavy of late, amounting to some three millions during the past week from the port of New York. As long as this state of things—which is probably due to the settlement of our foreign bondholders' interest account—shall continue, (says the Philadelphia Press) the gold premium will not be likely to fall much lower. But there is not much disposition to speculate either in gold or stocks at present prices; and probably capitalists will find a better use for their money, this year, in taking care of the crops, building ships, factories, and houses, opening new mines and railroad lines, and otherwise developing the material resources of the country.

—The First National Bank of Cedarburg, Wisconsin, appears to be retiring from business. It notifies all creditors to present their claims at once. There are thirty-seven national banks in Wisconsin. Most of them have small capitals. The bank in question has a capital of $100,000 and a circulation of $90,000.

—The Chicago Tribune, of Wednesday, says: There was a little more demand for discounts at the banks to-day, by grain operators and provision men, some of the latter of whom are packing on English account, and in some quarters currency was reported scarcer than during last week. Indeed, if currency had not been very abundant, the large shipments of to-day to the West and Northwest would have created some stringency, as from accounts a larger amount has been sent off to-day than on any one day for a month or two, one bank having sent off $200,000 to various points; to Peroria and along the Mississippi River above Burlington and to all the grain shipping points in Minnesota and Wisconsin. The total of currency sent forward to such points to-day from this city could not be far from $460,000. And no stronger proof could be given of the abundance of currency than that the large shipments of the last few days have caused scarcely any perceptible scarcity of currency.

THE CORNER IN OIL.

After the unpleasant experience of some people in forming "bull-rings" and manipulating the oil market, we would have thought that this sort of amusement was played out, at least for the present year. More particularly we would have thought that certain parties, not yet out of the lion's mouth, would have been more careful to conciliate public opinion than their last move would seem to indicate. After the most serious disasters brought upon themselves during the past year, in which the entire trade was more or less injuriously involved, converting a legitimate business into a most disreputable gambling operation, the same gentlemen, in conjunction with a certain Refining company (which we had supposed would never lend itself to such a nefarious transaction) have conspired together to "squeeze" the Refiners by some most contemptible sharp paactice.

The plan is this: these parties have gone into the market and contracted for say 60,000 barrels refined petroleum, deliverable last half of this month in Philadelphia, at their option from 21st to 31st, the custom in such cases being to receive on last day, at which time the sellers calculated to have all in Philadelphia. The parties, conspire together to demand the whole amount on the 21st or 22d, believing the Refiners cannot have it there by that time. They then go into the market and ostensibly buy at an advance of three or four cents, and intend, if possible, to keep up the price until after the 22d, and then collect the difference between the contract price and the fictitious prices which they propose to make. That there is no necessity for any such price, the fact that June oil is dull at 30½, and the best month in the year will only bring 31, is sufficient evidence. The whole thing is a prodigious swindle, and will prove a most ruinous adventure to all concerned. The trade has borne with this pernicious system of "corners" and combinations until forbearance has ceased to be a virtue, until the oil business has become the synonym of all that is unreliable, tricky and variable.

We trust the refining trade will surprise these gentlemen by furnishing every barrel of oil and collecting the money therefor on the spot. What our speculating friends will do with their fine lot of thirty cent oil when they get it, will be their look out, not ours. In all probability, with oil in Antwerp down to 43 francs, they may be glad to get off with a loss of two cents per gallon. This must inevitably be the result, if Refiners will just keep cool, buy no oil to cover, and if they cannot deliver on the day, let a jury assess the difference. There will be no difficulty in establishing the fact that before this combination was formed May oil was 28 cents, and any further advance is fictitious, stimulated by a deliberate conspiracy. Few juries could be impannelled that would award such men any damages whatever under these circumstances. S. S.

New York Dry Goods Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, May 14.—There has been a more general break in the price of unseasonable styles of Prints to-day, by the action of one jobbing house in reducing the price of all makes to one shilling per yard, against which most agents are determined to bolt. The Lancaster and Merrimack companies have reduced their prices, the former to 12½c and the latter to 13½c, but otherwise there is no important change, and so we continue to quote Cocheco, 14½c; Merrimack W, 14½c; do D, 13½c; do light style, 12½; Pacific, 13½c, and Lancaster, Manchester, Gloucester and American, 12½c. In other classes of goods there is no important change to notice.

CLIPPINGS.

A LADY has just been raised to the position of principal of one of the boys' grammar schools of Philadelphia—an advanced post in the system, heretofore held by male teachers at a salary beyond that usually allotted to women teachers. Some opposition has been made, but not much.

A LETTER describing the people in the lower counties in Virginia, says: "The old nabobs here are already looking seedy. The tall stove pipe hats are fading into brown; their coats are threadbare or fringed. They drink less often, but larger draughts. Their tobacco pouches contain the coarser twists or the bare stems. Still, I do not think they have reached their lowest level."

MINISTERS have a shrewd way of serving the Lord and doing a little pleasure travel on their own account at the same time. Rev. Dr. Scudder, of San Francisco, and Rev. Eli Corwin, of Honolulu, propose to "exchange" during this summer; so that one can see the Sandwich Islands and inspect the genuine Hell at Hilo, while the other does the Yo Semite and the Big Trees. This is a happy arrangement and worthy a worldly brain.

THE greatness of the railroad traffic between the west and the seaboard, and the rapid increase in its volume is illustrated by the fact thas the Hudson River Railroad Company has found it necessary to lay a third track along the entire length of its road. This work, a very difficult one, on account of the amount of blasting which it involves, will be commenced forthwith, and completed without interruption to the present traffic of the road.

YANKEE THRIFT.—Mr. John Brown, an American living in Valparaiso, Chili, has loaned that city $250,000 in gold for internal improvements. The history of Mr. Brown, says a Boston paper, is a remarkable instance of the force and perseverence of the Yankee character. It is but a few years ago that he landed at Valparaiso from a ship where he had worked as one of the crew, and with nothing but the clothes he had on commenced work as a journeyman carpenter. To-day his property is valued at five millions. He has an interesting family, lives in princely comfort, and stands at the head of social and financial affairs in Chili.

FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS IN GOLD AND SILVER COIN BURIED.—Mr. Jerry Brennan, recently deceased, who resided a short distance east of this city, left a memorandum with his will, addressed to the executor of his estate, telling him where he could find a quantity of gold and silver coin buried in the ground. The spot designated was in the cellar of his late residence, and yesterday the executor of the estate, in the presence of witnesses, examined the locality, and found gold and silver coin amounting to a little over four thousand dollars, carefully buried some little distance under the earth. The money has been safely deposited in bank.—Zanesville Courier.

ANOTHER DODGE.—The Reading Dispatch says: A full grown masculine, decently clad, stepped into one of our provision stores, a few days ago, and ordered a basket full of goods, of various kinds, to be taken to his residence, giving number and street, the goods to be paid on delivery, he simply taking with him a small quantity of crackers and cheese. The goods were sent to the house, but such a body, by such a name, did not live there, nor did any one know anything about the hungry scamp, who must have taken this method for getting his grub. This was putting the merchant to a good deal of trouble, besides defrauding them of what he put into his pockets, and who knows what he may have stolen while the unsuspecting merchant was filling the bogus order.

TO CLEAR A HOUSE OF VERMIN.—"Burleigh," of the Boston Journal, says: "I tell you, ladies, a secret may be worth your knowing—a new remedy to clear your house of roaches and vermin has been found. So complete is the remedy that men offer to rid premises of all these pestilential nuisances by contract. The article is sold under the name of French green and other high sounding names, and at quite a high price. But the article, in plain English, is common green paint, in powder. Six cents worth used about any house will "clear the kitchen," and all its surronndings. The pests infest many houses in this city, ad nuuseum, and we believe the ladies will thank us for suggesting so cheap an eradicator." But green paint is as poisonous as arsenic.

Two of the suppressed proprietors of the Tribune were busy about town yesterday vigorously disavowing the remarkable somersault of that sheet yesterday on Impeachment. It is said that the article was adopted in the Tribune Directory by "a strict party vote," which left Medill and the Lieutenant-Governor upset and badly demoralized. Mr. Grimes, of Iowa, did not put his funds into the capture of Tribune stock for nothing, and his hook still holds. It is said that Grimes is coming to Chicago to live. We get in that way a great many divorced cases, and this is about the most striking case of party divorce on the records. The only consolation left for the suppressed proprietors is to anathematize the false friend from Iowa whose gold bought the shackles they wear.—Chicago Republican.

A CUTTLE-FISH.—A letter from Alaska, published in the San Francisco Bulletin, says the "cuttle-fish" is an inhabitant of the waters of our new territory. Not long since one of them fastened to the bait which a sailor on the Jamestown had thrown over for halibut, and being detached from the bottom, was hauled or board without difficulty. The correspondent says: "As the repulsive glutinous mass sprawled its eight cold, slimy, flabby, living thongs (extending fully four feet) about the deck, to which it would attach so firmly that the utmost strength of a powerful man was required to rend the hold of one of them, we recognized the correct and unexaggerated description of Victor Hugo. If anything was needed to intensify its intrinsic loathsomeness, it was added when some Indians begged it, and taking it in their canoe ashore, ate it."

On Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, a young white lady, having on a white sacque, white dress, white hat, with a white feather, a white veil, white stockings, white gaiters, and white kid gloves, and carrying in her had a white parasol, crossed the Fulton Ferry from Brooklyn, and was "the observed of all observers." The suspicion exists that a wager is pending between this lady and the one who crossed the Jersey Ferry, but what may be its nature and object it is impossible to devine. An elderly gentleman remarked, on seeing the lady in question, that if her name was Miss White her "make up" was highly apropos.

THE question of using petroleum as fuel for steamers has been made the subject of careful discussion in the Society of Arts, London. Mr. B. H. Paul read a paper, giving results of investigation, and correcting several statements made by American investigators. He had found one ton of oil equal to one and three-quarter tons of coal. In its natural state petroleum contains a large amount of very volatile hydrocarbon, which readily vaporizes with heat, and with air forms an explosive compound. Hence it would be necessary to separate this by distillation from the oil. An objection to the oil, even thus prepared, would be its bulkiness. And since 10,000,000 tons of coal are used annually in steam navigation by Great Britain alone, while America, the great petroleum producing country, gives but about 360,000 tons a year, it would be hardly practicable to displace coal with oil.

A SENSATIONAL story recently appeared in a southern paper, and has since had a wide circulation, to the effect that a daughter of Gen. J. A. Mower, late in command of the Fifth Military District, had been outraged by a negro soldier, who, for this offense, was tried by a court martial and condemned. The sentence was not executed, however, for fear of disturbance among other negro troops of the General's command. They were given to understand that the offender had been sent away, while the fact was that he had been secretly killed, carved up and the mutilated remains hidden. The sensational features of this story are irreparably damaged by the discovery that General Mower is a bachelor, about thirty-five years of age, and never knew that he had a daughter.

THE Irish Republic of this week, speaking of the Banks bill for the protection of American citizens in foreign countries, passed on the 30th ultimo, says: "What Democracy has failed to do in fifty years, Republicanism has done in seven Let our people stand by the men who are true to liberty. Let them respond to this action of this Republican Congress, and cast their ballots for the next Republican candidate for the Presidency. It matters not whether he be Grant, Wade, Colfax, etc.; they are all pledged to the glowing principles of Republican liberty. On the other hand, let them support Francis Adams, McClellan, or some other pet of the English house of Belmont, who must be the candidate of the Democracy—let them do this, but let them cease their cant about freedom, or the rights of American citizens."

SOLON ROBINSON, late agricultural editor of the Tribune, has just returned from his winter expedition to Florida. He explored the St. John's River and its lakes, more than two hundred and fifty miles, examining the shores, creeks, springs, lands, timber, soil, and capacity and suitableness to sustain a population that may develop its riches, and will, in due time, publish a report of his observations. "Can people," he asks, "who live in Maine or Minnesota realize the fact that I have lived out of doors all the month of March, eating, sitting, sleeping in the open air, not even under my tent? My only shelter was my two rubber blankets, and these were only once needed to shield me from rain. In all the time we were in the woods, only one shower fell that required any protection, and in all the month the thermometer fell but once, and only for an hour or two, below forty degrees, so that sleeping in the open air was not uncomfortable. My regular way of lodging was in a canvas hammock, swung between two trees. In the bottom of this I placed a little moss, which is everywhere most abundant, and over this a piece of sacking and three blankets. If the night was cold, I slept under all the blankets; if warm, I had one over and two under—the one being necessary as a protection from musquitos."

Zug, relative to the complaint of the alleged encroachments on the bed of the Allegheny river, by the deposit of cinder, etc. Mr. Zug states that there need be no litigation as he will as soon as possible remove any encroachment, and conform to the Commissioner's line.

The communication was accompanied by the following resolution:

Resoved, That the Committee on Wharves and Landings be authorized to instruct the City Solicitor to stay proceedings against Christopher Zug & Co. in the matter of filling out opposite his rolling mill beyond the Commissioner's line on the Pittsburgh side of the Allegheny river.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Wharves and Landing with power to act.

STREET COMMITTEES REPORT.

Mr. Myler, from the Street Committee, presented the following report:

Your Committee on Streets desire to submit herewith profiles of the grades of Middle, Concord, Killbuck, Balkman, High and Henderson streets, and of Blair's Lindsay's Converge and Green Alleys, and would recommend their approval. They would also submit and ask the adoption of ordinances for the grading of High, Henderson and Fountain streets, and the grading and paving of Barker alley, Geyer alley and Fulton street. Two ordinances are reported for the latter street, each for the grading and paving of a separate part of it in accordance with instructions from Councils. They would also submit an ordinance for the grading and paving of Lindsay alley from Carroll to Jefferson street, and the following resolution for grading and paving a strip of ground, ten feet in width extending along the Northern side of Carroll street, from Federal street to Lindsay's alley:

Resolved, That the Controller be and he is hereby authorized to advertise and receive proposals for grading and paving a strip of ground ten feet in width on the northern side of Carroll street, extending from Federal street to Lindsay's alley.

They had under consideration a resolution to open a street from Western avenue to Ridge street, said street to be a continuation of Fulton street, and while favoring the opening of the street, they would not advocate its being done in a direct line with Fulton street, as thereby valuable buildings would have to be removed. This can be avoided by making an offset of five feet, and believing that no material disadvantage would result therefrom they would submit the accompanying resolution to open the street in the manner indicated.

In pursuance of instructions of Councils, they had prepared a plan of a sewer on Montgomery avenue, and an ordinance to authorize it to be constructed, which are herewith submitted.

The report was accepted and the resolution adopted.

Mr. Myler then presented the resoution referred to in the above report, relative to the opening of Fulton street.

Pending the discussion on the resolution, Mr. A. D. Smith offered a remonstrance against the opening of the street.

The resolution and remonstrance were referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Myler presented the ordinances referred to in the report of the Street Committee. Read three times and finally passed.

Mr. Myler presented a resolution providing for the grading and paving of Spring Garden avenue, from Chestnut to Main streets, the original ordinance requiring the grading and paving of the entire street. The resolution was adopted,

Mr. A. Patterson presented a petition for the establishment of a regular grade on Walker street. Referred to Street Committee.

Also, the profiles of the grades on Middle alley, Chartiers steet, High street, Lindsey's alley, Blairs alley, Sheffield street, Pine street, Main street, Canal street, Killbuck street, Bellknap and Concord streets, Green alley, Walker and Fountain streets. The grades were adopted.

The profile of the grade of Fairmont street was referred to the Engineer.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SURVEYS.

Mr. Gang, from the Committee on Surveys, reported the following:

Your Committee on Surveys, would respectfully report that they had under consideration the petition for a lower grade on Jallappa street than that reported by the City Engineer; also a petition for a regular grade on Walker street, which would necessitate a much higher grade on Jallappa street than that reported by the Engineer. They gave the question a thorough consideration, examined it in all its bearings as regards the public interest and the opposing interests of property holders, and having done so would recommend that the grades of said streets prepared by the City Engineer be adopted.

Mr. Reiter called for the reading of the petition asking for a regular grade on Walker street.

After considerable discussion a vote was taken on the adoption of the grade as established by the City Engineer which resulted in a tie.

The yeas and nays were called for by Mr. Faulkner.

Mr. Riddle moved to lay the matter over until the next meeting of Councils.

Mr. Myler moved to amend by calling a special meeting of Councils on the ground. The amendment was adopted, and the question recurring on the motion to lay over, it was adopted by a vote of 15 to 4.

Mr. Myler moved that the meeting be called on Monday the 25th inst. Adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WATER.

Mr. Brown, from the Water Committee, presented the following report:

Your Committee on Water desire to report that they had before them a number of petitions for water, and after a careful consideration of the same they would report adversely to those for water on Manhattan, Hamlin and Adams streets, and favorably to those for water on Fayette street, Western avenue, South Canal street, Union and Beaver avenues.

They would recommend the erection of a fire plug on the line of water pipe in the Eighth ward, and of a suitable number of fire plugs on Spring Garden avenue, in the Seventh ward, as both these localities greatly need them in case of fire.

They submit the following:

Resolved, That the Superintendent of the Water Works be and is hereby instructed to lay six-inch pipe on Fayette street, from Frazier to Fulton and on Western avenue from the present terminus of the pipe on said avenue to Beaver avenue; four-inch pipe on Canal street, from Sycamore street to Madison avenue, and on Union avenue, from Gay alley to the northern line of the M. P. Church property, and to Ohio street, if in his judgment it be advisable, and a ten-inch pipe on Beaver avenue, from the northern terminus of the twelve-inch pipe main in said avenue to Strawberry Laue; also that he be instructed to erect a fi e plug at the most suitable point on the line of pipe in the Eeighth ward, and a suitable number of fire plugs on Spring Garden avenue, Seventh ward.

As instructed by Councils they inquired into the contract between the city and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway Company, relative to the change in the route of the Manchester main pipe from Grant avenue to Fremont street, and they find that the company agreed to pay the entire additional expense incurred in making said change, and they therefore offer the following:

Resolved, That the Controiler be and he is hereby instructed to ascertain the whole amount of additional expense incurred in laying the Manchester main pipe on Fremont instead of Grant avenue, as at first proposed, and to insist upon said Railway Company paying the amount.

The report was accepted and the resolution was adopted.

REPORT OF THE POLICE COMMITTEE.

Mr. English from the Police Committee presented the following report:

Your Committee on Police desire to report that they had before them the resolution relating to signs and awnings. After due deliberation they agreed upon the resolutions in regard to their erection, and also in regard to other obstacles on the sidewalks embodied in the ordinances submitted herewith, the adoption of which they would recommend.

The Chair annonnced the receipt of the returns of the election of Councilmen in the Eighth ward.

Mr. Brown moved that they be referred to the City Solicitor.

Mr. Reiter moved that the returns be laid on the table. Adopted.

Mr. Myler presented the proposed plan of the City Sewerage as reported by the City Engineer.

Mr. Brown moved that the matter be laid over until Monday, the 25th inst., and a special meeting be called to consider the question. Adopted.

Mr. Cutler presented a petition from Solomon Shamberg, stating that having erected a wooden stable on Federal street, while ignorant of the ordinance relating to such structures, and being prosecuted he would respectfully ask Councils to allow the stable to stand and relieve him of the penalty incident to its erection. Accompanying the petition was one from many of Mr. Shamberg's neighbors, stating that no property was endangered by the building in question. After discussion, the petition was referred to Committee on Wooden Buildings.

Mr. Comley presented a petition for the grading and paving of Peach alley from Liberty street to Virgin alley. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Cutler presented a petition from residents on Walker street, asking that Jallappa street may not be graded unless Walker street be also graded.

Dreadful Accident.

One of the most terrible accidents we have had to record of late happened yesterday at the Fort Pitt Foundry, in the Fifth ward, and by which a very worthy mechanic was whirled into eternity. It appears that Mr. Robert Brown, a carpenter, was temporarily employed in repairing the interior wood work of the foundry, which had been destroyed by a recent fire, when by some means his clothing became entangled in the belt passing over a pulley, and before he could be rescued he was whirled several times around the swiftly revolving wheel. When taken from his perilous situation he was found to be shockingly injured. His right leg was fractured above the ankle, and also above the knee, and his left leg had received a compound fracture above the ankle. His right arm was shattered all the way from the shoulder to the wrist. In addition to these fractures he sustained several severe internal injuries. He was removed to his residence, No. 62 Pike street, and Dr. McCann and two other medical gentlemen were called in, who found their skill unavailing. The unfortunate man died soon after being taken home.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body, when a verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered. The deceased was about thirty years of age, and leaves a wife and two little children.

Fleeced Him.

A city denizen indulged in a bit of a spree on Wednesday night and was picked up in an intoxicated condition by two men not clothed in uniforms. He was carried for safe keeping to a shed adjoining the "Home for the Destitute," and was "gone through" in quite a handsome manner. Officer John Donnell, becoming acquainted with the circumstances, and doubting the philanthropy of the self-constituted guardians of drunken men, called officer William Mullen to his aid, and investigated the matter. They arrested the two men at a place of amusement, where they had retired. They gave their names as James Perkins and Melvin A. Eyler. Their victim was Wilt Rippey, and when he became more sober, he announced that he had been robbed of a pocket handkerchief with his name on it, and a pocket book containing forty-eight dollars in greenbacks and National Bank bills. He described the bills perfectly, and the money and the handkerchief were found on the persons of the prisoners. Information for larceny was made against them yesterday by Mr. Rippey, and after a hearing the accused were committed to jail to await their trial.

Alleged Larceny.

C. W. Ramsey made information before Justice Salisbury, yesterday, charging William Tucker and John Denny with larceny. He states that he came to Birmingham Tuesday evening and went to a saloon, where he met the accused. They took several drinks together and went to another saloon, where they drank again, and he finally got so drunk he could not walk when he sat down on a cellar door, the accused sitting down with him. He did not recollect anything that occurred after that until next morning when he awoke and found that he had been robbed of all his money and his friends (?) had departed. He made the information and Tucker was arrested. When he was taken before the Justice he stated that Denney had taken the money, five dollars and twenty-one cents, for safe keeping. Denny could not be found, and Tucker was committed for trial.

Railroad Consolidation.—The articles of agreement of consolidation of the Panhandle Railway Company, Holiday's Cove Railroad Company and the Steubenville and Indiana Railroad Company, under the name of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railway Company, were filed with the Secretary of the State of Ohio on Wednesday. This makes one perfect and complete corporation of the three previously existing under the name given above.

Trial of Government Officers.

The trial of Charles C. Johnston and Richard Wilson, Assistant Assessor and Inspector of Internal Revenue in the 20th District, was resumed in the United States District Court, before Judge McCandless, Thursday morning.

C. L. Stowell, D. W. Meade, Peter McGuff, W. R. French, N. R. Groves, Robert Walker, and James Carlisle were examined on behalf of the prosecution, testifying to facts corroborative of testimony given by the main witness John F. Smith.

THE DEFENSE.

Thos. M. Marshall, Esq., opened the case on the part of the defense. The crime of conspiracy was one of the most easily charged and extremely difficult to disprove. It would be shown that Smith was unworthy of belief, and that at the time when it was charged Wilson and Johnson made him the offer to run the refinery, Johnson was in Ohio.

John E. Braine sworn—In the fall of 1867 was a Treasury Agent of the United States Government; left Franklin November 4th, 1867; at Latrobe, my home, received orders on the 14th to proceed to Cleveland to make investigation into some frauds; received orders to have Mr. Johnson accompany me: left Pittsburgh the evening of the 16th of November, and telegraphed to Johnson to meet me in Meadville at 12 o'clock; met Johnson at the McHenry House, and we went to Cleveland on Saturday night, and came back Monday night; think the third Sunday night we met again; think I left him on the night of the 14th; he left for Meadville; he took home a large amount of reports to copy; supposed his work would take two weeks at five or six hours work a day; gave him two weeks to do it; he did not complete it; he sent it to me on the 24th of December unfinished; said he was about to be married; think the train left Cleveland at two or four o'clock; took about six hours.

Joseph C. Hays, sworn—Have been acting as clerk to the Assessor of the Twentieth District. John V. was chief and clerk of my son during November, December and January last; Johnson's commission bears date of 1867; he went to Cleveland with Col. Braine; did not see him when he was at home; there is no Sunday train from Meadville to Oil City that I know of; the last train is four o'clock; a man arriving at eight o'clock on Saturday night could not get to Oil City; when Johnson came back he was engaged in making out reports; think he was there for a week at least; heard him say he wanted to get a furlough: he went to New York on the 26th day of December; returned the 6th of January; he reported on the 7th or 8th that he had discovered a fraud; when I first became acquainted with the facts it was on the 9th or 10th; have known Mr. Johnson for two years; he has been residing in Meadville during that time; his character for truth was good.

Mr. Stowe was called and testified that the reputation of Smith for truth was bad; had heard a Justice named Byerage say his character for truth was bad.

O. H. Cullup, sworn—Reside in Meadville; from all the sources of information I have had, Smith's character all the time I have known him has been bad; my business as an oil barrel dealer leads me to make inquiry as to the character of oil men; would not believe him under oath.

On cross-examination witness named Mr. Irish and Mr. Mitchel. Mr. M. said Smith was not a trustworthy man; it was the common conversation that he was not trustworthy; heard Irish say he would not believe him under oath.

George Owens was sworn and testified that the reputation of Smith for truth was bad; could not say that he would not believe him under oath.

Thomas Clark, sworn—Have had a conversation with Smith this morning; he said I had better have his good will than bad will.

On the cross-examination witness said Smith told him he would sue him on a note; never gave my note to Smith for four barrels of oil; never had four barrels of oil which I took from his refinery; Smith did not tell me I had not told the truth; cannot say his general reputation for truth is bad.

Court adjourned at three o'clock, to meet at the usual hour this morning.

Abused Her.

Yesterday morning a young woman named Jenny E. Haberfield appeared before Alderman McMasters and made information charging Julius Dougherty with assault and battery. She alleges that yesterday she was in the office of the magistrate mentioned, and while she stood by the table waiting for the Alderman, the defendant came in. He stepped up to her and rudely demanded her name. She had never seen him before and declined to give her name, thereupon he seized her roughly and pushed her out upon the pavement. A warrant for the arrest of Dougherty was issued.

Attempted Highway Robbery.

On Wednesday evening, at about nine o'clock, a man named Ducas was crossing Mechanic street bridge, when he was attacked by four unknown ruffians. He defended himself as best he could, but his assailants knocked him down and beat and choked him severely. While two of the party held him down, the others searched all his pockets, but he had neither money nor other valuables on his person, so the speculation of the ruffians was a failure.

Inquest in the Case of Victor Gschwind.

Yesterday afternoon the Coroner's jury, impannelled in the case of Victor Gschwind, deceased, met at Alderman Taylor's office, in the Fifth ward, when the following additional testimony was heard:

Dr. W. I. Asdale, the physician who attended deceased, testified that he found a wound on the right side of his head, two and a half inches in length; it was a superficial injury, and did not penetrate the skull. He also found an extensive fracture below this wound; a large portion of the bone was depressed, and the lines of the fracture diverged in all directions; there was a wide fissure extending down toward the base of the skull. In the opinion of the witness this injury was produced by a fall from a body in motion; he did not think it was caused by anything but a fall from a train. The injuries were sufficient to cause death, and were made some hours before he was found.

Harry Smith, who attended the saloon at the corner of Liberty and St. Clair streets, testified that the deceased was in the saloon on Monday night with a man named Frank Arnold. Arnold was drunk and Gschwind had been drinking. They left about eleven o'clock; said they were going to a hotel.

"Cooney" Smith testified that he was with deceased on Monday afternoon and in the evening. They went into Mrs. Mower's, on St. Clair street, took a drink, and got acquainted with Arnold. They went to Troy Hill together; left there about nine o'clock; came back to Gschwind's house, and went to bed. Witness thought deceased went to bed also; was certain he went into the room. Witness was pretty drunk that night. He never saw deceased afterward.

William Butler, conductor of a yard train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, testified that on Tuesday morning between five and six o'clock, while coming in from East Liberty, and when his train was near Lawrenceville crossing, a brakeman stopped him. He ran down the bank and found the body; placed it on the engine and took it to the outer depot. He was still alive when found.

Patrick G. Nash, the brakeman, corroborated the conductor, and added that he found a letter on deceased directed to No. 19 St. Clair street.

John Snyder, an acquaintance of deceased, testified that Gschwind was at his boarding house, St. Clair street, about nine o'clock Monday night; left about half past ten; a raftsman was with him; the raftsman was very drunk. They were in the cellar saloon at the corner of Liberty and St. Clair streets at about eleven o'clock.

The verdict of the jury is, that "Victor Gschwind came to his death on the morning of May 12th from a wound in the head produced by cause or causes unknown."

Wm. Kable testified that on Tuesday morning he saw Arnold crossing the suspension bridge with a carpet-bag in his hand. Arnold is the man who was with deceased on Monday night.

Marbleizing.

We referred a few days since to the introduction in this market of marbleized slate, a manufacture exclusively engaged in by only one house—that of W. W. Wallace, Nos. 319 and 321 Liberty street. The importance of the trade will be fully appreciated when more persons are made acquainted with the superiority of this class of marbleizations over all others in use, being far prettier, much neater and more durable than the original they imitate. Marbleized mantles cannot be stained by the perspiration of the hand, by acids, salts or any chemical. They will stand bright as a mirror through ages, and will never wear out. They are sold at much less than ordinary marble, and are infinitely better for all purposes. Mr. Wallace is daily receiving orders from all parts of the country for mantles, vestibules, table tops, counters, &c., which he manufactures in the highest style of the art, and sells much below Eastern prices. Persons interested in this art, or contemplating refitting old homes or furnishing new ones, are invited to call in and see the very fine stock on hand in the warerooms of the establishment.

Illegal Liquor Selling.

Kate Dramey appeared before Mayor Blackmore on Wednesday and charged Andrew Shehan with selling liquor on Sunday. She averred she knew he was guilty of the offence, as she had herself bought the liquor sold. Her reason for making the information was that she had given the defendant some clothing in pawn for drinks, and now he refused to give them up. The accused was arrested, but the witnesses for the prosecution not being present the hearing was postponed until yesterday morning, but the witnesses were still absent, and the defendant was discharged.

"They made her a grave too cold and damp
For a soul so honest and true."

If they had been wise, the dire necessity of opening the grave for one so lovely might have been averted. Plantation Bitters, if timely used, are sure to rescue the young and lovely, the middle-aged, and the ailing, from confirmed sickness.

Almost all diseases have their beginning in some slight difficulty of the Stomach, which would eventuate in Dyspepsia, Headache, Liver Complaints, Night Sweats, Consumption, Death. Plantation Bitters will prevent these premonitory symptoms and keep the blood pure and the health good.

While they invigorate the system they enliven the mind.

Assault and Battery.—N. Shaffer was yesterday attacked by John Summertop and E. Meckey, while driving along Rebecca street, and as he alleges, pulled from the wagon and beaten shamefully. He made information before Alderman Neillie, charging them with assault and battery. A warrant was issued.

Passable.—The crossings on Fifth street are once more passable. Under the direction of Street Commissioner Hunter the mud, with which they were covered to the depth of several inches, was removed, and persons can now cross without the aid of a flat boat.

Committed.—Catharine Drummie, charged on oath of Andrew Sheehan with perjury, was arrested and taken before Alderman McMasters for a hearing yesterday, after which she was committed to jail in default of the required bail, for her appearance at Court.

An Inhuman Father.—John Bohmes, residing on Chestnut street, Allegheny, was arrested yesterday, by officer Brown, while in the act of beating his child in a most cruel and inhuman manner. He was taken to the Mayor's office and fined five dollars and costs.

Held for Trial.—Henry Palmer, charged with poisoning Philip Weil's dogs, an account of which we published yesterday, had a hearing before Justice Barker yesterday, and was held to bail to answer at Court.

A corps of workmen are engaged in preparing Fifth street for the reception of the Nicolson pavement. The side-walks have nearly all been widened to the requisite number of feet.

Cleaned.—The "Apostles" removed the mud from the Nicolson pavement on Wood street yesterday.

Reckless Driving.—John Hines, a teamster, was driving up Federal street yesterday with a load of stones, in such a reckless manner as to come in collision with car No. 26, on the Manchester line, while it had stopped at the Ft. Wayne Depot to let a passenger off. The tongue of the wagon struck the window in the end of the car and broke it, scattering the glass all through the car. Information was made before Mayor Drum, charging him with reckless driving.

Again Practicing.—Our very worthy friend Col. J. S. Meyers, one of the pioneer lawyers of Venango county, has resumed his legal practice, after having retired for some time. His office is at Franklin, and we commend him in earnest terms to all our friends as a clear headed, well read and able civil and criminal lawyer.

Abused His Wife.—Matilda McCleary made information before Justic Salisbury, of Birmingham, yesterday, charging her husband James McCleary with assault and battery. She alleges that he beat and abused her shamefully. The parties reside in Baldwin township. James was arrested and held for Court.

Correction.—In a case reported yesterday before Justice Rudisill, of Sewickly, and in which the name of a Miss Lizzie McLaughlin figured conspicuously, we feel it possibly necessary to say that she is not the estimable lady of that name connected with the Pittsburgh School of Design residing in Sewickly borough.

The spire of the new North Avenue M. E. Church, in Allegheny, has been completed, and the scaffolding removed. It presents a very fine appearance, and is considered one of the most handsome spires in this vicinity. The work on the interior of the church is progressing rapidly.

M. O. W. B.—Anselm Dretsch, of the Modern Order of Wife Beaters, was committed to jail yesterday by Justice Arent, of Allegheny, to answer a charge of assault and battery, preferred against him by his wife. Why hadn't Dretsch as good right to beat his better-half as any other person?
